Just Returned From the Eastern Markets.

Mr. P. Eldridge has just returned from the Eastern markets. He combined business with pleasure, stopping at St. Louis to view the Fair, with its various attractions. He says it is an exhibition well worth seeing.

A Pleasant Affair.

On Wednesday afternoon, August 24th., Miss Mamie Dreeben entertained quite a number of her friends in honor of Miss Jennie Tromowitz, of Rusk, Texas. At the appointed hour the guests and programs were handed around and ten minutes was given to make the greatest number of words out of "Prothocaramatic." Miss Dessie Urquhart being the most successful was awarded the prize, a beautiful embroidery collar. Then the game Buncho was announced and at the end of the 12th game it was found that Miss Addie Keese had won the lovely box of stationery. By request of hostess the tables were cleared and dainty linen was spread and delicious refreshments were served.

The following were present: Misses, Ballauf, Hottinger, Hightower, Scott, Leaf, Eberstadt, Evans, Keese, Stallcup, F. Openheim, L. Oppenheim, Figures, Kistenmacher, Tromowitz, Urquhart, Rae Dreeben, Mrs. A. McKay.

Get the Boys and Girls Ready for School.

We have just received one of the most durable and prettiest lines of clothing, shirts and shoes for boys and girls you will have the pleasure of seeing this year. What recommends them most is their durability and reasonableness in price.

Died

At the home of Judge and Mrs. Mosely, this city, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Jane Mosely, aged 76 years, 11 months and 28 days. She leaves several children, many other relatives and a host of friends to mourn her departure. We join in sympathy with the bereaved ones whose loss is heaven's gain. Next week we hope to publish a suitable obituary.

The large concourse of friends in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Mosely, ("Aunt Jane"), at the old homestead, nine miles north of this city, was a deserved tribute to the memory of an excellent Christian character. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Bearden, who is now engaged in a revival meeting in the city.

Married.

At the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. M. T. McReynolds, by Rev. John H. Bellot, Dr. Lyman D. Roach and Miss Ileta Powell were united in marriage at 1:40 p. m. August 21, 1904.

The groom, a young dentist, resides at Harleton, Texas, where he is engaged in the practice of his profession.

The young bride's home is at Corpus Christi, Texas, and while returning with her parents from the World's Fair stopped off at Jefferson to visit relatives and while here yielded to the tender pleadings of her young lover not to go back to Corpus Christi.

The young people have the good wishes of their friends as they start out on the journey of life.
